An instance of the detestable Chinese habit of using the back of bank notes to serve malicious ands has been brought to our notice. There is in the possession of Inspecor Conney a pank note on which is wiftten a long riguratole in Chinese, setting forth that the compredere of the Hongkoug & Shanghal Bank has changed the shroff staff and that the new shroffs are very uncivil to the customers. The effusion was doubtless written by a discharged shroff, severely punished.

Six of the Chinese brew of the Nanzing were brought before Mr. Wise at the Police Court to-day charged with stealing property belonging to some of the passengers on the steamer. The men came here yesterday. and were at once arrested, in consequence of complaints made to the police, Articles, of jewellery &c. were found in the men's possession which were afterwards identified by passengers as property which had been stolen from them. Three other men employed on board the launch Sun Me were also arrested on the same chargeresterday. The Sun Ma took a number of Chinese passengers from the Nanzing to the colony, and it is alleged that while on the way the accused men took the opportunity to appropriate some of the luggage The cases were remanded. One of the launch men, against whom the charge of largery was proved, was gentenced to six months' hard labour, and all the others were convicted of unlawful possession and

MILN DRAMATIC COMPANY AT THE THEATRE ROYAL

Under ordinary circumstances a manager with any knowledge of the tastes of Hongkong playgoers would probably not select a round of Shakspearian plays at the material out of which to make a prosperous dramatic season here. He would be aware of the fact that the works of the great Post would anot be able to hold the stage against a nonsensical burlesque, and that the Prince of Denmark or the Moor of Venice would not be able to compete, successfully with a man singing so-called comic songs, or a woulsn' ficing in tights. But the circumstances uder which Mr. G. C. Milu's dramatic ompany commenced a season of the legitimate drama at the Theatre Royal on Saturday, are rather out of the ordinary. Mr. Wife himself is an actor of distillation and he is supported by a company of exceptional strength. Mr Mila's reputation as a Shakspearian actor led to high expenta-"tions being formed as to his appearance on Saturday night in the part of Hamlet; and it is satisfactory to be able to say that those expectations did not and in disappointment. SINGAPORE AND THE MILITARY

CONTRIBUTION: A public mosting, was held in Singapore on the 13th mat, to consider the increased long. The meeting in discribed as being the largest and most representative over held in Singapore. There was scarcely standing room to be had. Mr John Anderson (of Messrs Guthric & Co.) was called to the chair, and in the course of an able speech he made several pointed references to the conduct of the Secretary of State for the Colonies .- He said :-

the action, in this Military Exaction matter, of the Secretary of State for the Colonies. It is sometimes considered to be impolite to express one's opinions in language which is bare and plain, but the present circumstances are such that it is advisable we absolutely necessary, that we should early and loudly speak our minds, and declare our views and intentions in plain unvarnished English ... So I say here, and I say it with the intention that it shall reach Lord Knutsford, as being in my firm belief the feeling of the British representative inhabitants of this Colony, that he has played us false. He-has betrayed the trust which this Colony reposed in him. It has been openly said here, and I give t as what I have been told by people who, presume, speak from book, that in the carlier negotiations on this matter with the War and the Treasury Offices: the Se cretary of State for the Colonies was against this excessive bleeding of the Straits Sottlements, and that for a time he argued and fought against it. You must remember that, in our minds, he holds the position of a guardian and promoter of the welfare, development, interests, and prosnerity of this Colony. Well; he is said to have been overpowered by weight in the Cabinet the members of which cared not one" rap for the Colonies, so long as a reduced expenditure and an increased surplus could by shown in the Imperial British Budget. The following resolutions were carried That this meeting of residents in Singapore protests against the exaction of the sum of £100,000 a year, which (in addition to other heavy military charges) is demanded from the Straits Settlements by Her Majesty's Government in aid of Imperial Military expenditure. It further protests against the policy under which the cost of troops, maintained chiefly for Imperial purposes, is drawn almost wholly from the Colonial revenue (and under which the whole of such cost, free from any limit as to amount or as to the numbers of the troops, may be charged on the Colonial revenue) without the Culdny's consent.

That the Chairman be instructed to forward to the Straits Association in London a copy of the foregoing resolution and to ask the Association to lay it before the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and also to use all constitutional means to obtain redress for the injustice to which the people of Straits Settlements are thus subjected.

EMPHESS VHEDERICK IN PARIS-PRENCH ARTISTS DENOUNCED. Paris, February 21. - The papers in this city flercely denounce the French artists for sending pictures to the art exhibition to be held in Berlin. Forty-five artists have already agreed to exhibit their works. Paris, February 25th. - The organization known as the Lesgue of Patriots has violently denounced the visit of the Empress Frederick of Germany to the palace of Versailles on Monday last, The League Viscount Anki replied, that in regard to decided to hold meetings of protest until General Brugers, and M. Ribot, Minister of Foreign Affairs, to call upon the ex-Empress, This was accordingly done. This question of etiquette was und ubtedly the cause of much anxiety and worry to the members of the French Cubinet, and was made the subject of long and earnest discussions before it was finally concluded. The Government did not dare to risk the verdict of public opinion in case President Carnot called upon the imperial visitor.

It is evident that ex-Empresa Frederick' visit to St. Cloud and Versailles was ill-ad vised. The extremists are shouting very loadly, and even moderate papers arge tha her stay be not prolonged. The patriotic league under the lead of Deroulede is orgauizing hostile demonstrations against the Empress. She will probably leave Friday morning. Her visit has hardly increased the chances of a good French exhibit at Berlin in the art exposition.

CONDITION OF EMPREOR WILLIAM AT A

[It must be remembered that the following is from an American paper. London, February 21. - The German Emperor evidently does not stand in dread of public opinion; otherwise he might not have indulged in wine to the extent that, according to Berlin dispatches, he did at the dinner in his honor given by th Brandenburg Diet on Friday evening.

The speech was delivered in a maudlin way, and was more of a plea than a command, being in this respect a departure from his usual manner. His niterances were significant in one respect. They went to show that he is beginning to recognize the magnitude of the task he has laid out for himself in reforming Germany to suit his ideas and in shaping European politics besides. The Emperor evidently intended to speak more, but a prolonged attack of hiccoughs compelled him to sit down.

The Berlin papers are, of course, silent about the wine episode, which, however, is a general matter of gossip and scandal. It is said in extenuation of the Kaiser's conduct that he is sometimes driven almost to madness by racking pains in his head, and that when these come the winecup is his only escape from misery,

OANARDS ABOUT WILLIAM. London, February 22. - Rumors are in active circulation on the bourses of Berlin. Vienna and Paris that the health of Emperor William of Germany is such as to necessitate his spending four months in the milder climate of Italy. These rumors are accompanied by the assertion that during the proposed absence of the Emperor from his capital his brother, Prince Henry, will be placed at the head of the regency. Advices from Berlin, however, emphatically pronounce the rumors basiless and add that the Emperor will remain in Germany until June, when he will proceed to Mingland on a visit to Queen Victoria.

THE BOTHSCHILDS PEOPORE TO MAKE THE OZAR PEEL THEIR PINANCIAL POWER.
